

SELECTIVE COLLEGE NIGHT

Each student is highly educated, prepared for leadership and service, and empowered for success as a citizen in a global community.

Parents and Students, Grades 8-11:

Moderated by David Dobos, CCS alumnus and M.I.T. graduate, a panel of CCS alumni students currently attending selective colleges (Yale, USMA at West Point, Georgetown, Cornell, Dartmouth, and M.I.T.) will discuss various topics to help current students understand how to prepare for the selective college experience.

One can never consent to creep when one feels an impulse to soar.

Helen Keller

Topics will include the following:

- Expected high school coursework
- Admissions expectations
- The application process
- Costs and scholarships
- The first year
- Helpful hints
